Requirements for "Sprint 1" source code.

1. To only use the four basic code types- Pennies, quarters, nickels, dimes.
2. When having a dollar output, the dollar amount should show two decimal places for "cents"
3. The program should be able to correctly read the input and add up the total value
4. "And" is used to link different coins together
5. To ignore misspelled words or symbols